THE DRAPERIAN 1961

*DRAPER
HIGH SCHOOL*

SCHENECTADY

NEW YORK

Foreword

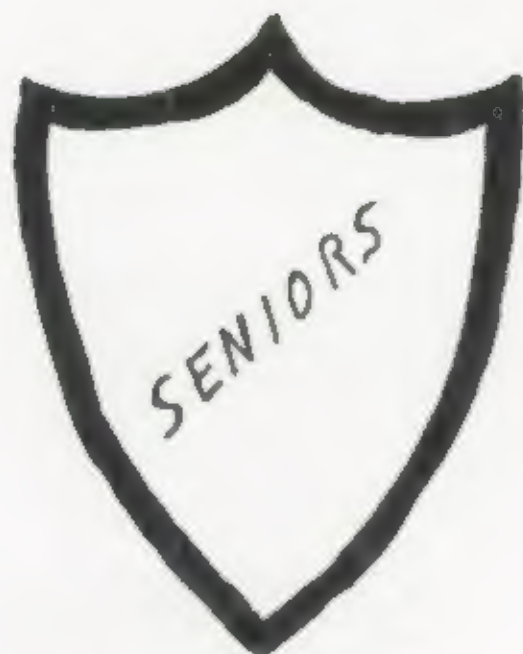

As we, the graduates of the class of 1961, leave the halls of our Alma Mater, we take with us many memories of our school life at Draper.

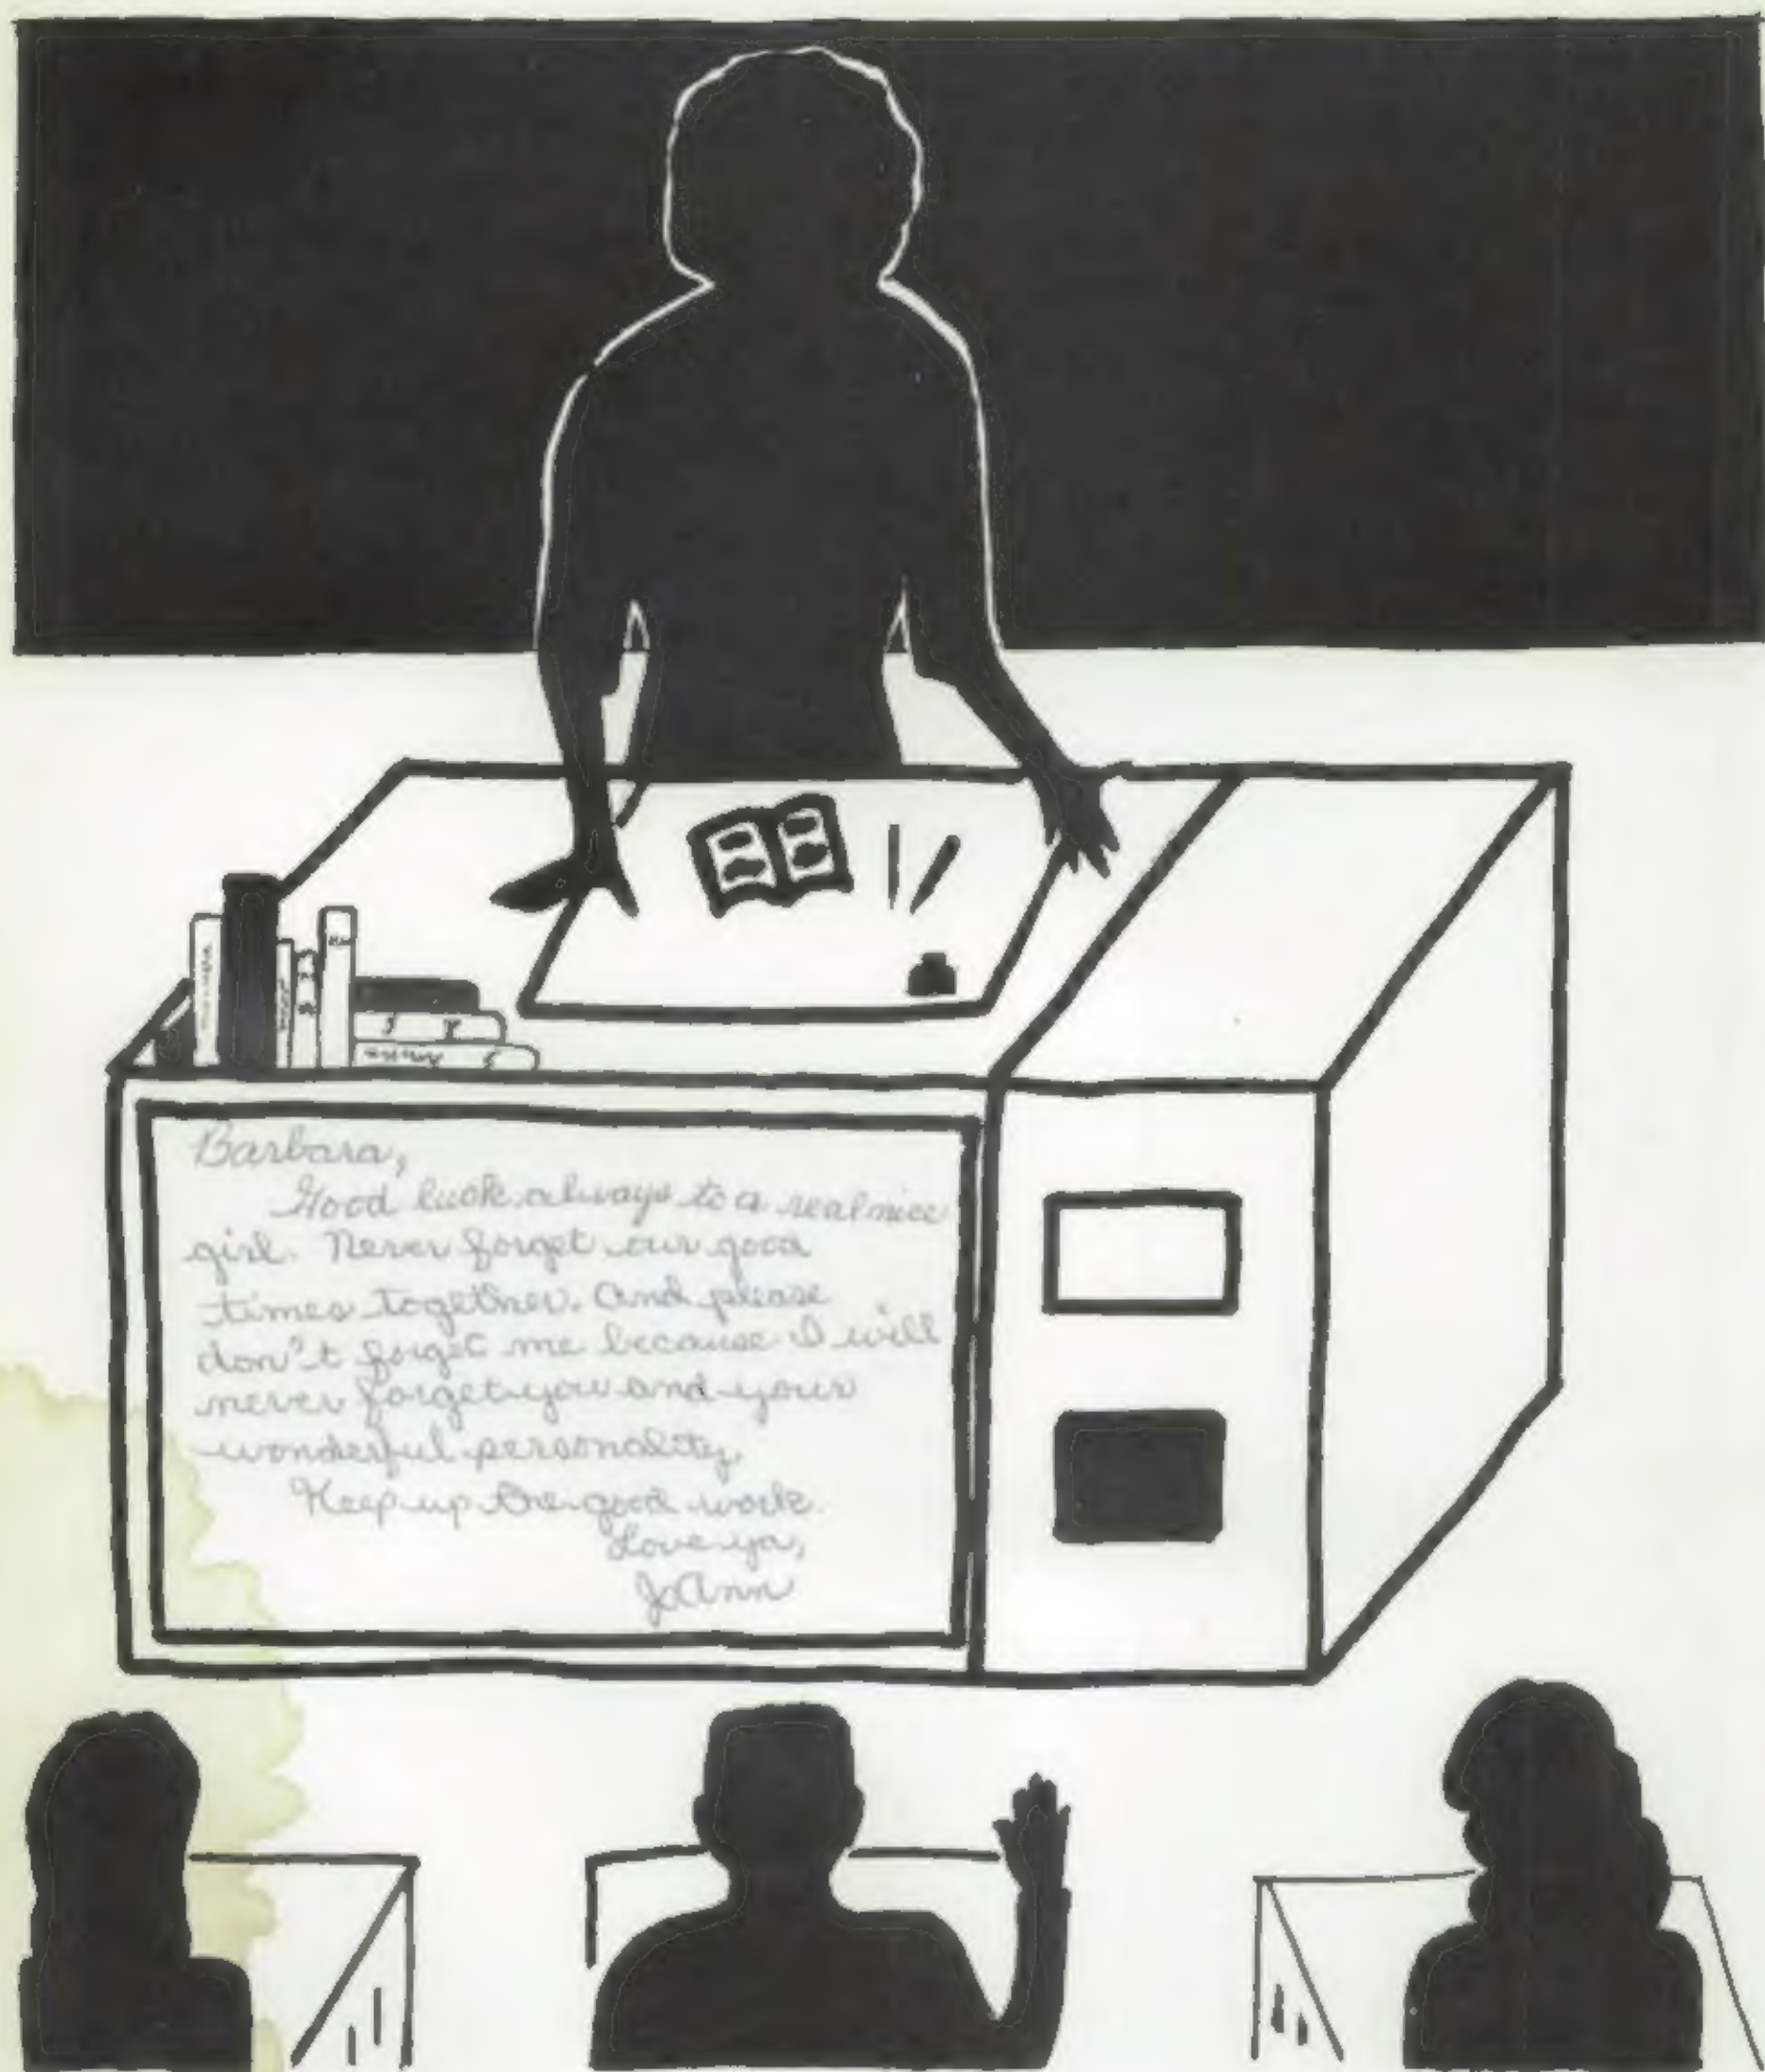

A picture being worth a thousand words, this yearbook which we have assembled contains many memories of our school life, friends, and teachers, and will serve to recall them better than words which would slip from our minds.

The 1961 Draperian presents a portion of our high school career to look back on in remembrance of growing up and becoming an adult representative of our school, society, and nation.

C O N T E N T S

Barbara,
Good luck always to a real nice girl. Never forget our good times together. And please don't forget me because I will never forget you and your wonderful personality.
Keep up the good work.
Love ya,
Ann

For their patient help, their complete understanding of youth and our problems, and their continued interest in our progress, we, the class of 1961, respectfully dedicate our yearbook to the faculty of Draper Schools.

FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION

Superintendent

I congratulate the class of 1961 on graduation from Draper High School. As graduates, you represent a great investment of time, money, and efforts of many people.

It is only right that those who have invested in you receive a return on their investment. This return consists of your assumption, in due time, of the full duty and responsibility of citizenship. Continued education and training beyond high school are required.

I hope you recognize and take advantage of the many opportunities for your further educational growth in order to make the best use of your abilities.

HOWARD E. BAKER

Principal

Although we as a nation are subject to many international pressures and live in a time of stress popularly referred to as a cold war era, we know and are sincerely convinced that our system is best for the economic, social and political well-being of our nation.

Certainly, the high school you have attended these past four years is a part and parcel of the bigger picture. It is my sincere hope that, as you look into your yearbook in future years, you may not only bring back memories of friends and former acquaintances, but may also mentally reaffirm those principles for which they and your school stood.

NORMAN ROWELL

Board of Education

Left to right: Mr. Kenneth Dolan, Mrs. Myrtle Horan, Mr. Warren McDonald, Mr. Philip A. Spinelli, Mrs. Emily Grzybowski, Mr. David Briggs, Mr. Howard E. Baker

Mr. Baker, Superintendent; Mr. Spinelli, President of the Board

Mr. Arthur, Treasurer of the Board.

Best wishes to the graduating class of 1961. Many of you have attended Draper since you started school in kindergarten. Your education has been largely a product of our school and we are proud of you. We will follow your future careers with a great deal of interest and hope you will come back and visit us often. It is our earnest desire that each of you be granted good health, happiness, success and an opportunity to serve your fellowman.

Esther M. Richards
Director of Guidance

Sincere best wishes to the Class of 1961. You have conscientiously applied yourselves to the task of graduation from high school. I have every confidence that you will now work even harder to achieve success in your future endeavors whether it be more education, immediate employment, or in the service of your country. Let sound values be your guide and your lives will be both happy and worthwhile. No one can ask for more

SENIORS

Mrs. Harrington, the Senior Class wishes to express its deepest gratitude to you. It was through your patience and guidance that our ball, play, year-book and banquet were so successful. Your untiring efforts will never be forgotten. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

Mrs. Wier, because of your sincere interest and helpfulness in connection with our many projects during our formative high school years, our class finances were handled very successfully. These projects will always be precious memories of the graduating class

Mr. McChesnev, your sincere endeavors are truly appreciated by the class of 1961. Your guiding hand and warmth have always been there when we needed them. Thank you for your assistance with our Prom, Draperian, banquet and ball. They will never be forgotten by our class is the Netherlands' choice. Athletically endowed Lyda plans to become a physical education teacher in the near future. We know she will succeed.

Foreign Exchange

The very essence of world peace is better understanding among nations. The exchange of students, sponsored by the American Field Service and supported by the Student Council, is enthusiastically welcomed in our school.

Jim Chant

was Draper's choice to represent the United States abroad. Jim resided in Bethurg, Germany this past summer. Draper is certainly proud of their choice in Jim.

The highlight of our Junior year was May 13, 1960, the night of our Junior Prom. The decorations in the gym gave a South Sea island effect as couples danced to the music of Dino Cimino. The crowning of our Queen and the Grand March made us feel we were on our "Isle of Dreams."

Meet Me in St. Louis

"Meet Me In St. Louis," a three-act comedy by Christopher Sergel, was presented by the class of 1961 on December third.

The play was about the Smith family, and the predicaments they got into when Mr. Smith announced that they must move to New York to live. The Smith children's scheme to prevent this from happening led to many serious but amusing problems.

Under the capable guidance of Miss Patricia Thompson, we can proudly say that our play was a success.

Draperian Board

The Draperian Board has spent both time and effort in planning and assembling the 1961 Draperian.

We hope that it will bring you many pleasant memories and that the people who have helped us will feel rewarded.

UNDERCLASSMEN

Deans

The Junior Class started off a busy year with the selling of magazine subscriptions. Projects were planned by various committees to raise money for the Junior Prom. Under the guidance of our three very capable advisors, Mrs. Wasserman, Mrs. Bettlejeski, and Mr. Leal, the Junior Class had a very successful year

Dean

The Class of 1963 wishes to extend its sincerest thanks to the class dean, Mr. O'Connor. Under his careful guidance, it has had a prosperous year. Two major projects were the sale of Christmas tape and the Sophomore Dance. The class hopes to be as successful in its remaining years as it was this year.

On all fronts—science, business, marketing communications, the arts—the American economy is expanding, changing with the explosive speed of a missile. Never before have such great frontiers awaited young Americans. Never before have so many high school graduates gone on to obtain the higher education that is necessary to qualify for the future's great careers. But how will you fit into this bright future? Talk with your guidance teacher or counselor for the answer to this question. By doing so you will find out how to best prepare yourself for a successful future in space age America.
